EXPLANATORY NOTE

THIS is a Roll of Enlistment. The names in Section I comprise those who were already serving in the Army and Navy at the outbreak of war together with those who joined between Aug. 4 and Dec. 31, 1914. The later sections cover successive periods of three months. The entry of names on the Roll ceased with the coming into force of the first Military Service Act.

The names printed in red indicate those who were killed in action, died of wounds, or died of illness contracted on service.

TO THE SOLDIERS OF THE TEMPLE

YE served at Law, yet waited not its call
To Arms; whenas the forsworn Hun in hate
Of covenanted right, an innocent State
Trampled in blood, then sprang at arming Gaul.
Ye left our knightly fane and Common Hall,
As erst those Templars who, with hearts elate,
Did 'neath the Cross the Crescent's pride abate,
For Christ's high law content in fight to fall.

Though some are fallen Jordan or Aisne along,
Your laurels deck the tombs of those old Knights
Who Beauséant planted where ye kneel to-day.
Justice arisen, and ordered freedom strong,
The Templars' service, as their death, requites,
Who left the happier took the holier way.

CHARLES DARLING.
